Dear Sir:-

In one of the issues of the Sunday Herald or the Sunday Times in July or August 1921, an article appeared announcing the prospective issue through the banks of Ohio of a special coinage of gold dollars, commemorative of the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of ex-president U. S. Grant.
I've inquired concerning this in the Federal Reserve Bank and in several of the banks in the financial district, but without any satisfaction. I've therefore taken this liberty of asking you about it. I would like to know thru what channels a few of these gold dollars might be obtained and also at a reasonable price.

As the one hundredth anniversary is on April 27, 1922 it is quite possible nothing has been done as yet.

Hoping you will be able to give some information
I am

Respectfully
John J. McGinley

Dear Sir:

We understand that the Bill for the Ohio Commemorative gold dollar was held up in Congress. Whether it will come up again in this session, I do not know. If it does, you will undoubtedly see something regarding it in the papers.

Very truly yours,

Curator
